It is designed to support you to comply with your responsibilities under PRIN 2A.3.16 R and PRIN 2A.4.16 R. Please note that you are ultimately responsible for meeting your obligations under 'The Consumer Duty'.

This information is intended for intermediary use only and should not be provided to customers.

1. Summary of our assessment

Bank of Ireland (UK) plc have assessed that:

- ▶ The Product Transfer and Further Loan ranges for Bank of Ireland existing customers who originated through the Post Office brand meet the needs, characteristics, and objectives of customers in the identified target market
- ▶ The intended distribution strategy remains appropriate for the target market
- ▶ The range of products provide fair value to customers in the target market (i.e. the total benefits are proportionate to total costs).

2. Product range characteristics & benefits

New standard Post Office branded mortgages are now only available on a direct basis, however existing customer products are available through intermediaries or direct. The existing customer ranges also includes products for legacy mortgages no longer sold.

3. Target market assessment and distribution strategy

This target market assessment matrix segments the target customers for the product range, recognising their different needs to enable you to tailor the services you provide when distributing the products.

Customer circumstances	Distribution strategy	Customer needs & objectives
Existing customers considering their options on securing a new fixed rate, rather than paying Standard Variable Rate. Existing customers looking to borrow additional funds.	Available through intermediaries on the Bank of Ireland Intermediary Panel including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Networks and their Appointed Representatives ▶ Mortgage Clubs ▶ Directly Authorised intermediary firms Also available directly on an Execution Only or Advice basis (Execution Only not available for additional borrowing).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Access to a range of LTV tiers ▶ To fix costs for a defined period ▶ The ability to make overpayments up to 10% per annum without incurring Early Repayment Charges ▶ Having a mortgage that is fully portable ▶ The need to borrow additional funds for options within criteria.

The Bank considers that the product range is appropriate to be distributed through third-party intermediaries (Directly Authorised intermediary firms; networks and their Appointed Representatives; and Mortgage Clubs). Additionally, the Bank believes that it is appropriate that distribution is undertaken through a full range of communication mediums which include face to face, telephony or digital. The medium selected must be appropriate to the customer and take account of their communication preferences.

The Post Office Owner Occupier Mortgage Existing Customer Product Range is not designed to support the financial needs and objectives of borrowers who:

- ▶ Are looking to pay off the mortgage or change mortgage product during a fixed period, resulting in Early Repayment Charges being paid
- ▶ Are looking to pay more than 10% overpayments per year and are not in a position to pay Early Repayment Charges
- ▶ Are letting the property out, or the customer is intending to let it out
- ▶ Are using the property for business purposes, or the customer is intending to use it for this purpose
- ▶ Are in breach of their Terms and Conditions, in which case the customer is not eligible for this product range
- ▶ Do not meet further lending criteria if looking to borrow additional funds.

4. Customers with characteristics of vulnerability

This product range is designed for existing mortgage customers of Bank of Ireland (UK) plc originated through the Post Office brand, who need to secure a new rate or borrow additional funds. This is likely to include customers with characteristics of vulnerability or who will experience vulnerability over time.

Bank of Ireland (UK) plc considers the needs, characteristics, and objectives of customers with characteristics of vulnerability within the customer journey to help provide products that meet their needs.

We have in place a framework to help us deliver good outcomes for vulnerable customers, which includes:

- ▶ Education and training for our staff to give them the appropriate skills and experience to recognise and respond to the needs of vulnerable customers
- ▶ Suitable customer service provision and communications
- ▶ Flexible policies, where appropriate, to support vulnerable customers
- ▶ Monitoring to ensure we continue to meet and respond to the needs of customers with characteristics of vulnerability.

Please contact us if you need any further information about how Bank of Ireland (UK) plc support the needs of all our customers in relation to the product range. Options to contact us can be found at

<https://www.bankofireland4intermediaries.co.uk/contact-us/>

You should continue to comply with your obligations to ensure that you treat customers in vulnerable circumstances fairly.
